ACADEMY HERALD

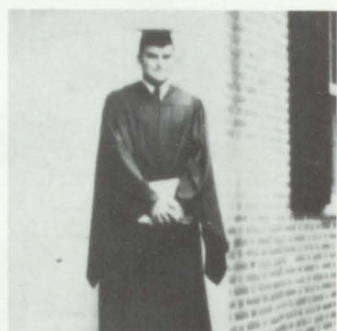

The Class of 1989 dedicates this book to

C. GARY HILL

In every community, there are people we look up to and people we trust. There are those we count on to make us laugh and those we depend upon to give us guidance. There are those we respect and those we just couldn't do without. This year's book is dedicated to someone who embodies all of those characters and many, many more.

We, the Class of 1989, would like to thank you, Mr. Hill for everything you have done for us and for Gould over the years. Keep fighting, stay happy, and don't forget us. We love you!

The Purpose of Life is . . .

To laugh often and much;
To win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children;
To earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends;
To appreciate beauty;
To find the best in others;
To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition;
To know even one life has breathed easier
because you lived.

BETHANY MAE ALLEN

First of all, I thank my family. you are the best group of people I've met in a long time, and you like me !! (sometimes.) Daddy, you are my hero, and thank you for being my "real" father. Miya, Jeff, Sue, and Krissy I love you all more than chocolate. Thanks to every teacher that I've ever had, especially Mrs. Owen.

"I thought the sparrow's note from heaven,
Singing at dawn on the alder bough;
I brought him home, in his nest, at even;
He sings the song but it cheers not now,
For I did not bring home the river and sky —
He sang to my ear, — they sang to my eye."
Emerson

A part of the river and sky were in the sparrow's song; they made it beautiful. My song is made up of Gould and the many people and experiences that have come along with it. I fear now after four years my song will not be the same. It never can be. But I thank you all the same.

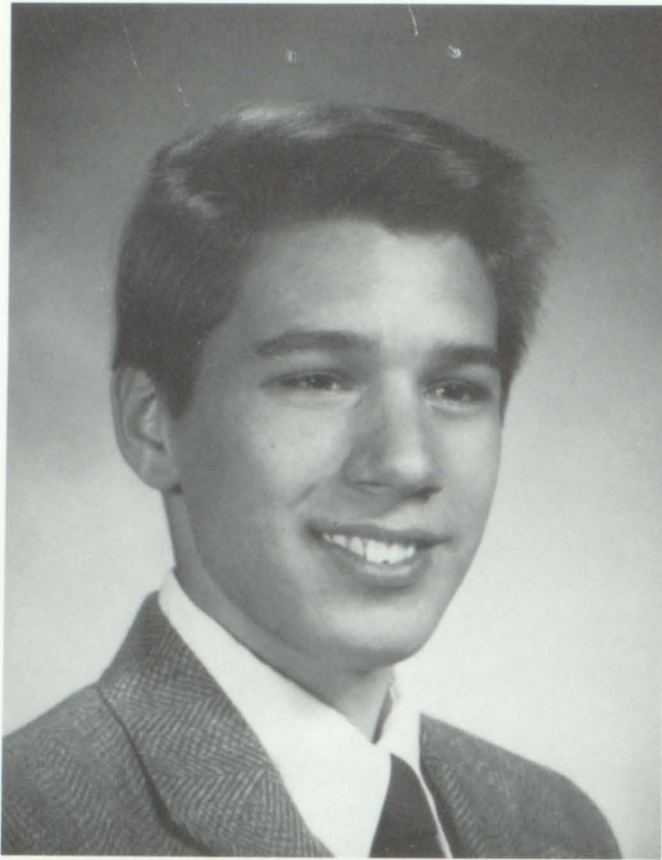

"I count myself

in nothing else so happy . . .

As in rememb'ring
my good friends." Shakespeare

(Amy, Tommy 3, and Patrice and so many others, thanks for all the fun and all the love. Truh — can't wait for the 22nd.

MICHAEL BLASTOS

Thanks to the following :

My family, especially Dad who trusted me. Andy Spofford, Holly Hammond, V.L.C., my orientation crew, C.C., Matt K., Marty H., Tommy O., Mandy L., Billy D., Timmy H., Mike + John B., Pete C., and many more who helped set me straight.

Thanks to all the teachers who helped me when I needed it.

Thanks Gould for letting me try again.

Ice is forming on the tips of my wings

Shane and Hugh: Best of luck and I will see you out in the real world. SEE YA!

I have made it this far and I am going all the way. The world is out there for me to have, and I'm going to take what I want, by any means necessary. It would take a nation of millions to hold me back, because I have a dream, also.

BYRON RATTERY

First I would like to thank the Almighty God for giving me the strength and patience to complete my final year at Gould Academy. I would especially like to thank my mother and grandmother for guiding me and keeping me on the right track.

"I am an invisible man. No I am not a spook like those who haunt Edgar Allen Poe; nor am I one of your Hollywood — movie ectoplasms. I am a man of substance, of flesh and bone, fiber and liquids — and I might even be said to possess a mind. I am invisible, understand, simply because people refuse to see me. Like the bodiless heads that you see in circus side shows, it is as though I have been surrounded by mirrors of hard, distorting glass. When they approach me they see only my surroundings, themselves, or figments of their imagination — indeed, everything and anything except me."

excerpt from — The Invisible Man
by Ralph Ellison

Thank you Shane, Adiaha, Keno and Brian; we needed each other.

ADIAHA JACKSON

"The basic tenet for black consciousness is that the black man must reject all value systems that seek to make him a foreigner in the country of his birth and reduce his basic human dignity."

Mommy: Thanks for believing in me. Most of all, thank you for being strong, believing in yourself and being a friend. I Love You.

Atiim: Thanks for being a brother I could love, yell at and be a big sister to. Love ya.

Claudiann: I have always been looking for a true friendship and I found one with you. Our friendship is forever. Love Always!

Corrie: You'll never marry a lazy chauvinistic dirty old man. You'll never love "IT" too much, and most of all, our friendship will never die.

31. Hsien / Influence (wooing)

The state of our mind, the attitude of our spirit, affects the whole universe; therefore; it is best to be conscientiously correct, out of the sight and hearing of others. In Chinese philosophy, it is said that the slightest wave of the hand moves molecules all the way to the end of the universe. Should we not, then be careful in our actions?

61. Chung Fu/ Inner truth

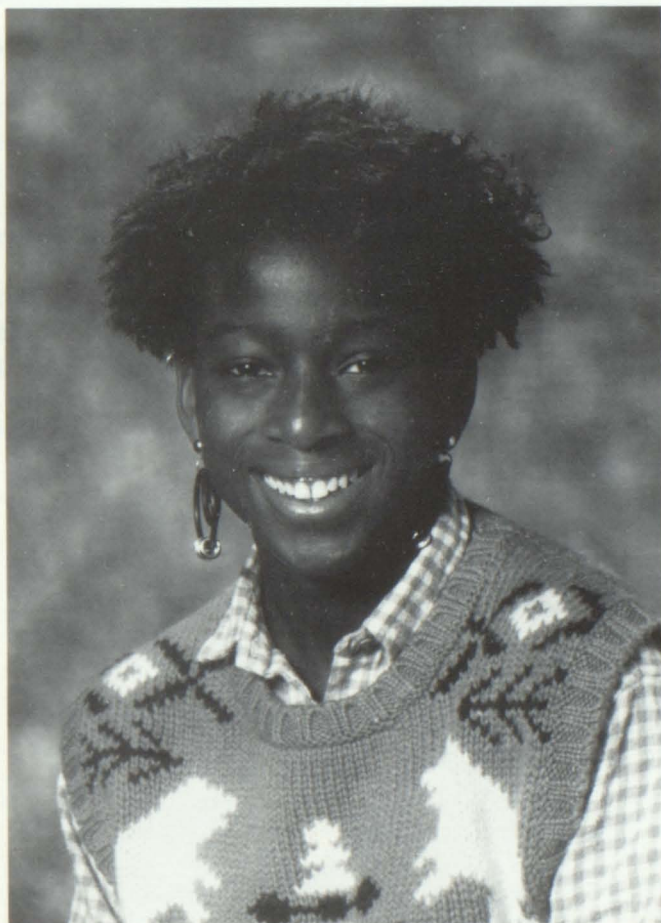

Inner truth is the accumulated power of spiritual experience. It is knowledge of the cosmic laws we have acquired through self-development.

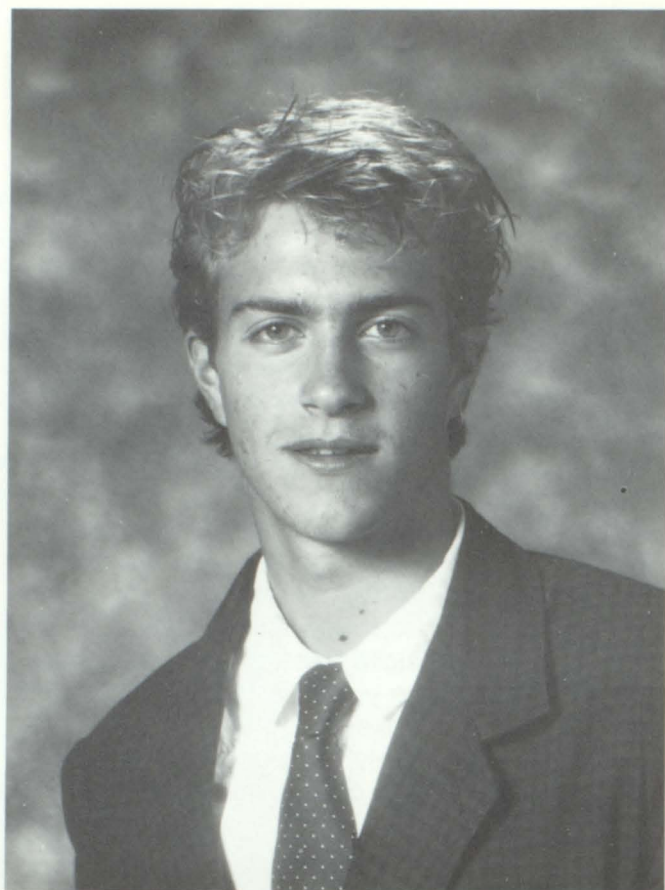

-The philosophy of the I Ching.

I just wanted to say thanks of course to Mom and Dad, I appreciate everything. Also to my grandmother: I love you. Mrs. Pooley: thanks for being there. Mrs. Baker: I don't whine. And finally, Mr. Taylor: I rely on your advise. Thanks.

I do remember one thing,
It took hours and hours, and by the time I
Was done with it I was so involved, I Didn't know what to think.
I carried it around with me for days and days,
Playing little games, like not looking at it,
For a whole day, and then looking at it, To see if I still liked it . . . I did.

I repeat myself when I'm distressed
I repeat myself when I'm distressed
I repeat myself when I'm distressed
I repeat myself when I'm distressed
I repeat . . .

The more I look at it, the more I like it.
I do think it's good.
The fact is, no matter how closely I study it,
No matter how I take it apart,
No matter how I break it down,
It remains consistent. I wish you were here to see it.

I LIKE IT!

COURTNEY LEE BURNELL

The so called cardinal (or deadly or capital) sins are not sins at all but seven disorderly propensities in our personality that lead us to sinful behavior. Pride, covetousness, lust, anger, gluttony, envy and sloth are sound and healthy human proclivities gone askew: self — respect, self-preservation, communion, personal freedom, self-expression, celebration, relaxation. The cardinal sins result not from fundamental evil, but from fundamental goodness running out of control . . .

It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena: whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; who knows great enthusiasm, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause; who at his best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring. The fall from innocence is the discovery that all the potential for happiness we have in childhood is often not realized in adulthood. Perhaps a regaining of innocence is what it means to be fully human — it is the imaginative return to the golden garden, the one place we can truly be ourselves.

A LONG, HARD SEASON

The Gould Academy Women's Soccer team might not have had a great season, but looking back, we sure came a long way!

We practiced in the dark, the mud, and the rain. We battled the Noseems and ran four laps (twice) daily, which ultimately prepared us for MAISADs. The MAISAD Tournament, with its two inches of mud at center field and puddles of water surrounding the drooping goal cages, set the stage for a game that looked more like a wrestling match than soccer. We went in fourth and came out very muddy, tired, and third. We are looking forward to next year and winning the MAISAD Tournament. Thanks to our captains Monika Burk and Nikki McElhinney, who never lost a toss. Thanks to our coaches, Ms. Head and Mr. Cousins, and to our fearless and often embarrassed managers Alice, Deborah, and Brenna.

MEN'S J.V. SOCCER

The men's J.V. soccer team finished the season with a great record of 7-1-2, due in part to a never — say-die attitude that was maintained to the final moments of the game. The first game of the season was won in just this manner, in a 3-2 overtime victory with the game winning goal scored with 20 seconds on the clock.

The team worked hard for its wins, and came together when it counted on game days, with all 22 players contributing to the winning season. Leading scorers were Ethan Fink with 8 goals, Harvey Vicioso with 7 goals and Ben Mezzacappa with 5 goals. The captains were Paul Lothridge and Chris Kayser.

The 1988 Women's Varsity Field Hockey team continued its undefeated streak in the MAISAD League by bringing home the championship trophy for the second year in a row. The team was lead by an awesome offense and an indestructible defense. Everyone played hard and contributed to the winning season. We couldn't have done it without the great coaching of Mrs. Gardner; thank you. Good luck next year and never lose that energy, strategy, and finesse.

Gould Academy had the best darn X-C program in the country with "Team Zero — No Friction" as our motto. Our practices consisted of hill work, leg speeds, over distance, and a smorgesborg of Mr.Taylor's paired resistance workouts. We had only one real race, the MAISADs. We ran at several others but they were mere practices for MAISADs at Hyde. Mud, mud, and more mud was what we saw there. The women's team took first place over Fryeburg and the men's team took second to Berwick in both the Varsity and J.V. races.

Mud was our favorite food to eat in the woods. A group called Mud Runners From Hell (with Dean Marvin as Captain) had its own practice everyday. Once hunting season rolled around the Mud Runners took a back seat to Team Dork (Captain Paul Koubek). Team Dork had their own uniforms of orange safety hunter hats and vests.

People and things to remember: Pete, Tao, and Toby-Team Joke. Patrick vs. The Rock. Masaaki and the Worms. Endless hours of teasing Adiaha. Alex Hickey; the team bulley (why didn't we throw her in the brook?). Amanda, monsters don't live in the woods. Mr.Davis and his lame puns and poor bus driving skills. (Next year we hope to get a licensed driver.) Blastos-"Doesn't Patrick have the same tights?" Dave and Andre with their high tops. Ben and Paul-the Dynamic Duo. Kevin and his perfect tan. Just one question: Have we got the results from MAISADs yet?

We would like to thank our coaches Mrs. Pooley, Mr.Davis, Mr.Taylor, and Mr.Seigel for a zero season.

This year's basketball season proved to be one of the more exciting seasons. For the first time under the Dorhmann era, the Huskies beat Hyde twice. This could not have been done without the spectacular fan support the team received throughout the season.

Close games were both won and lost this year as the team made it to the play-offs in Augusta. We lost in the first round to a tough Rangley team that eventually became the champs of Class D.

Great efforts were put in throughout the year by the team starters, Pena, O'Boyle, Carter, Kirn, and Fink, as well as a strong bench that lasted all season long. A great assistant-coaching job was done by Tom Lazare. Thanks for a great season Mr. Dorhmann and all who helped out keeping the stats and working the clock. And special thanks to Mr. Walker . . . for just being you . . . you're great!

1988 marked a move for the golf team from a spring to a fall schedule, and no one missed the mud. This year's team was a very competitive squad finishing with a 4-2-1 record and plenty of war stories. The team was lead by senior Todd Kern (who had won the Maine High School Championships over the summer) in the number one spot who could always be counted on for a win. A highlight of the season was the team's fourth place finish in the state Regional Tournament held at the Gorham Country Club. We actually finished third, but George has a problem on nine and . . . well, never mind. Todd went on to finish 6th in the Individual's State Tournament.

Matt Karatz, Jesse Berger, George Miller, Matt Aeschilman and Sanford Fogg rounded out the rest of the regular line-up. Other team members were: John Kern (no relation to Todd), Creighton Runnette, Ben Anderson and Josh Cornell. We were coached by Mr. Sanborn, who probably was the only person with the team whose game got worse.

J.V. TEAMS HAVE SMASHING SEASONS

The Women's J.V. Basketball team had a smashing winning season this year of 4 wins to only 2 losses. The goddesses on this fearless team included Rebounding Rebecca Marron, Jen "Where's the ball?" Baldwin, Alesia "Baby" Norling, Marlies "Slash" Ouwinga, Mika "Take a step" Cross, Movin' Mary Ring, Molly "Three point" Russell, Kate "Which basket?" Chester, and Molly "I'm gonna kill that ref!" Hoover.

Beyond the team's stupendous victories was their never failing success at having fun. While learning how to jump, guard, steal, dribble, aim, shoot, rebound, pass, catch, "fake out", "take out", slam dunk, thrash, and scratch, we also learned how to laugh and really enjoy the game. Mr. Hill always kept us on our toes, healthy, happy, and confident.

A few highlights of the season included: "beating the socks off" Waynflete, an opposing team scoring points for us, Molly Russell's beautiful three pointers, and the first time we tried on our uniforms.

We give many thanks to Heather Boody for her excellent job as manager and her great help and support for the team. We also thank you Mrs. Hill for your support at our games, your support for Alesia's ankle, and for the wonderful dinner.

Most special thanks to our Mr. Hill from all your babes. You managed to change this group of clutzy, lazy amateurs into a roaring whirlwind of basketball fire. We thank you and we love you. You are our hero.

The members of the men's J.V. Basketball team were known as "The J.V. Bad Boys". The starters for this team were: Captain Lee Roberto, Eric LaLiberty, Louie Lorenzana, Bizmarck Ramirez, and Sanford Fogg. The rest of the "Bad Boys" were Andy Levi, Jaques Perolle, Marc Vincent, and Dave Torruella. Our record was 10-3, and the overall score was 719 (J.V. Bad Boys) to 513 (opponents). Our coach was Brian Walker who we hear was in the running for "Rookie Coach of the Year Award". In almost every game we won, the point margin was thirty points or more. The exceptions to this were our games against Kents Hill, which were exciting down to the buzzer games. We had a great season. We would like to thank our coach and our many spectators for their support.

The 1989 Women's Basketball team went through a lot of changes this year. We had a new coach, new uniforms, and for the first time in many years, a winning season!

Our team probably laughed, sang, danced, and shot foul shots more than any other team we played. We were also a lot better looking. Whatever the reason, we were winning a lot of games. The seniors on the team were: a wild French-woman, who had a very unique accent, not to mention her lay-up style. A person our refs took to calling "Curly", although we on the team thought Mandy looked nothing like any of the Three Stooges. Becca, who never quite got the rule about pushing people out of bounds as a means to get the ball straight, although she found it to be effective. Beth, who concentrated on her acting skills the season—"Me? The foul was on me?" Mary surprised everyone in our last game of the season, letting loose from long range. We think she underwent some sort of stretching ritual before the game (It may be added to next year's practices). Jen was a force on the court; stuffing people and slam dunking became her favorite pastimes.

This is not to say that the rest of the team was not made up of talented beauties. We had Joanna, whose most valuable move was taking out the tree from Hyde in the first quarter of the game. Liz broke her finger mid-way through the season, but while she was playing, she scared off defenders with her multiple bruises and her hairdo. Chrissy was another of our players on the injured reserve, but really came through for us in the final games of the season. And how can anyone forget Susan, who exposed her true inner self along with her duckie printed underwear while on the foul line?

All in all it was a great season. Maybe we will beat Waynflete next year. Thanks to Mr. Johnson — you did a great job for someone who used to be a team water boy. Good luck to next year's Blake Flakes.

ACROSS THE RIVER, THROUGH THE WOODS . . . TO A CHAMPIONSHIP!

For the first year in recorded history, the Gould Academy cross country ski team ousted Holderness from its reign of supremacy over the Prep School League.

A very fine season of skiing on not so fine conditions culminated here, amid a steady drizzle, on Gould's own trails in February. Before the snow had settled, the men's team had taken the trophy with a convincing two and a half minute win over Holderness in the relay. The women's team also finished a solid season in grand style, finishing a close second only to the superhuman girls from Holderness. All this is not to say, however, that 1988-89's triumphs can be summed up in this one race. The entire season was successful, with noticeable improvements on everyone's part, especially the beginners.

The three seniors on the women's team — Kim, Paige, and Patrice — battled all season for the top spot. The underclasswoman brigade of Monika, Martha, Aleks, and Adrienne provided consistent support. Ben once again had an outstanding season for the men's team, leading Gould to its first Telstar Relay Championship in years, and an undefeated season on the MAISAD and Prep School circuits. Next year's team should be equally as dominant with varsity skiers Paul, Jason, And Kevin all returning to lead the charge.

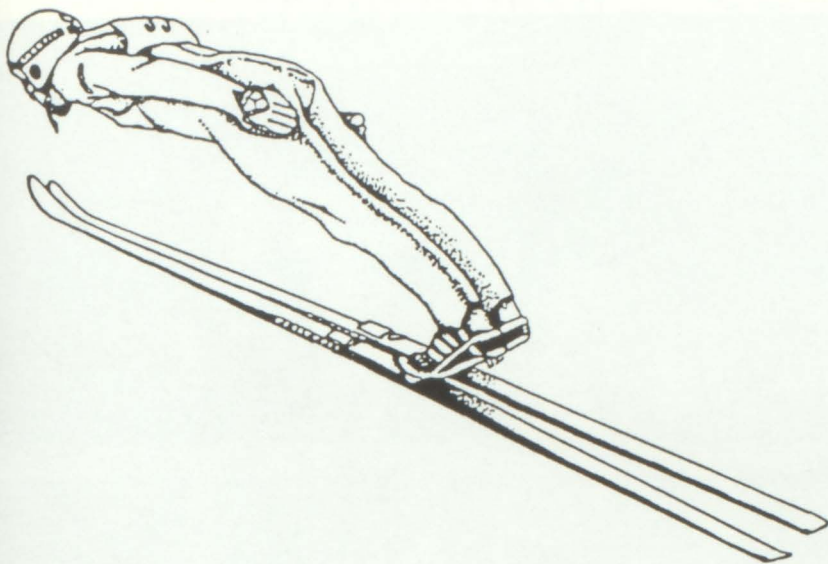

The season would not have been nearly as successful without the help of our coaches who didn't hesitate to put in the extra hours. We'd also like to thank our many fans who braved the winter chills to support us.

THE ONLY WAY TO FLY

The 1989 Gould ski jumping team had its best season in years. The energy and efforts of Mr. Wight and Mr. McGuire were unmatched by any coach in the league. We had four first year regular jumpers-Jeff Noyes, Rob Todd, Zach Aldrich, and Jesse Berger. The rest of the team consisted of Mike Wilson, Tom Heys, Alex McCall, Dave Angelis, Blair Wood, and Marty Hacker.

Nothing was going well as the Prep School Meet was approaching. The meet was originally to be held at Gould, but bad weather made this impossible. In a last minute decision, the meet was to be held at Proctor under the lights. The meet went well with Jeff Noyes and Alex McCall both placing high. Mike Wilson won the meet and Rob Todd and Jesse Berger also had long rides. Although the season was short, the goals were high and it took a lot of hard work from everyone.

It's hard to convey the time and effort that our two coaches put into this season. They became much more than coaches and we all learned more than just how to jump well. I know I speak for the entire team when I say thank you, you made it a great winter.

PREP SCHOOL AND MAISAD CHAMPS

Gould Academy hosted the 1989 MAISAD Championships at beautiful Sunday River. The Giant Slalom was the first and the longest event, with the start moved up to the top of Wildfire Trail. The course looked challenging and everyone looked a little nervous. When the race was about to begin, the official starter Dean Marvin could be heard practicing his "Racer readyyyyy!" Heidi Van Winkle, racing number one for Gould, was in the starting gate. Her fellow racers could see a twinge of nervousness in her eyes but this quickly was gone when she heard Dean's "Racer readyyyyyHUT!" and the race was on. Heidi reached the bottom and posted a time of 35.42 which was beaten by only one other racer. Gould also placed 3,4,5, and 7th in this race.

The men's race was a nail biter as well with Toby Salin taking 1st, Matt (Splat) taking a well deserved 3rd and Tao was a top finisher also. Gould easily won the slalom event as well.

The women's lacrosse team had an excellent season, finishing with an 8-2 record in the MAISAD league. The highlight of the season came in the final game where we defeated Berwick 13-7. It gave everyone on the team (but especially the seniors) a satisfaction that words cannot describe.

This year's team was definitely the best team that Gould has seen in years. We had it all: a great defense, a skilled offense, and some of the ugliest tights this side of the Mississippi. We also had our team mascots — Horatio and Bun (the lucky rabbits) and a slightly charred salamander that we are having schalacked. The one thing we didn't have, unfortunately, was a large contingent of spectators — although some did turn out for "Bikini Bake-off" day.

Goodbye to all our Seniors. We will miss you!

TOURNAMENT CHAMPS!

The men's J.V. lacrosse team was a motley bunch of men to begin with. Lacrosse was sometimes an afterthought because of the mud fights or playing in the puddles on the field. But those small things were put aside when these gallant men took the field. The J.V.s played harder than hard, and faster than fast as they winged to victory during the regular season. Of course we lost a few close ones and our heads hung for a while, but we still had that flame within us. All the games were simply practices for the final showdown at the infamous J.V. Tournament!

When the tournament rolled around, Gould hit the field running. Our first opponent was Waynflete, a team we had lost to two days before. We beat them in an exciting overtime game. Then came Hyde, who Gould had lost to twice in the regular season. We humiliated them with a 2-1 win. Bath, the next victim to fall lost to Gould 3-0, and the hardest was yet to come.

Emotions were running high as the showdown between Gould and Kents Hill began. Both teams were strong, fast, and able to score. Gould took the field and shook Kents Hill like a fly as we won the game 5-0 in a stunning defeat that had the crowd on its feet.

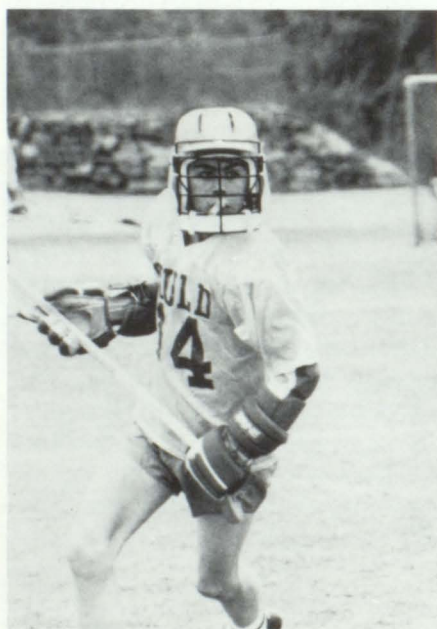

With the win over Kents Hill, Gould advanced to the championship round and literally ran Cony into the ground 4-0. Winning the J.V. Tournament proved that good coaching (thanks Mr. Rackliffe) and strong play by all involved really can make a team number one.

The J.J.V. Lacrosse team had a winning season of 4-2, which was more than anyone had hoped for. We spent our days learning how to play a skillful game of lacrosse, coached by the infamous Brian Walker. Our wins could not have been possible without his never ending words of wisdom, if that is what you call it. Although we did not have as many games as the other teams, when we did have one we gave it our best effort. It was a great season and we all had a fun time.

CRASHING TO VICTORY

When the cycling team wasn't busy crashing, puking, or being brought up on charges of hit and run, we did manage to have several riders finish in the top ten of every race. Thanks to Mr. Taylor's excellent coaching, the team finished third over all in the league with our riders taking the two top spots in the season individual ranking. The team did exceptionally well considering that a large percentage of us had never raced before. Perhaps with more depth next year, we could sweep the league!

The Women's Varsity Softball team had quite an awesome season with a record of 5-3. This year's team had a core of five sophomores, three freshmen, and one junior, who will all be back next year eager for the elusive MAISAD championship. Our two seniors, Madeline and Jen, will be sadly missed.

Molly "Muscle" Russell could always be counted on in left field and "Fred" Johnson never stopped providing a little comic relief. The other two "super freshmen", Sue Crandall and Chrissy Packard showed their "superior muscle strength" in every game. Adrienne improved a lot, and did a great job for her first year. All she needs to do now is figure out which hand she wants to her glove to go on! Sarita Kailey had the "wings of fire". She was a consistent hitter and a great catcher. Wendy's knuckles couldn't take pitching anymore, so she showed her softball expertise on first and behind the plate. You could usually find Liz hanging out at third base, and she was always ready for those hard grounders down the line. Our honorable Captain, Martha Newell, played a little of everything, even helping Sue on the mound with some pitching.

Thank you for a great season Mr. Newell and Mr. Doorknob. And of course our studly manager, Andy . . . you're our hero!

The J.V. Softball team had a very predictable year! We would like to thank Mrs. Pooley for putting up with us through the spring, and also our manager Andy Spofford for teaching us that "Goalies and catchers feel no pain". Things that we will never forget are: Jen Baldwin going up to bat with her catching gear on, Liese Stevens always getting hurt, and Jill Shapiro's bare feet!

TENNIS

UNDEFEATED IN MAISADS

The Women's Tennis team had a great season, finishing with an overall record of 9-1 while remaining undefeated in MAISADs. Despite being scared all the way to our meets by Mrs. Johnson's driving, we managed to regroup and play hard in all our games. Samantha went home to France halfway through the season, but despite this loss of our number one player we kept on winning. Unfortunately, we didn't fare so well in the tournament. Our favorite thing to do in practice was sing along with Jane, and we now all have her golden voice etched in our memories. Thanks Mrs. Johnson for hanging out with us and also thanks to our numerous spectators for their never ending support.

A DAY TO REMEMBER

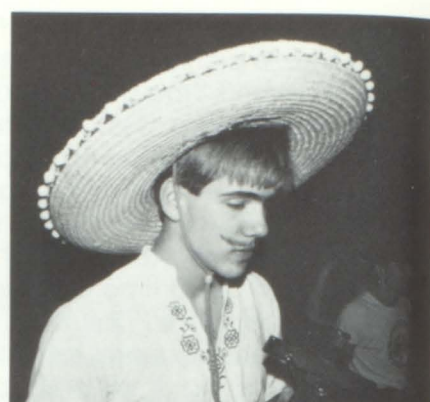

Mountain Day, that one day of the fall which all students look forward to . . . a nice sunny day, a leisurely hike, a picnic at the summit . . . guess again. This year's Mountain Day was the only day of that week that wasn't "the perfect day for a hike."

As we loaded onto the buses, the sky promised rain. About twenty minutes into the hike, the sky kept its promise. We continued on, through the mud and across the rivers. As we reached the shelter, many who chose to wear jeans or leather jackets began to wonder why they came to Gould. We all crowded into the shelter, trying to stay warm and eat squashed sandwiches and broken cookies. Despite the rain and the smell of wet wool sweaters, spirits were for the most part high. Many of us actually had a good time and most everyone made it to the top. Bryce even made it on crutches.

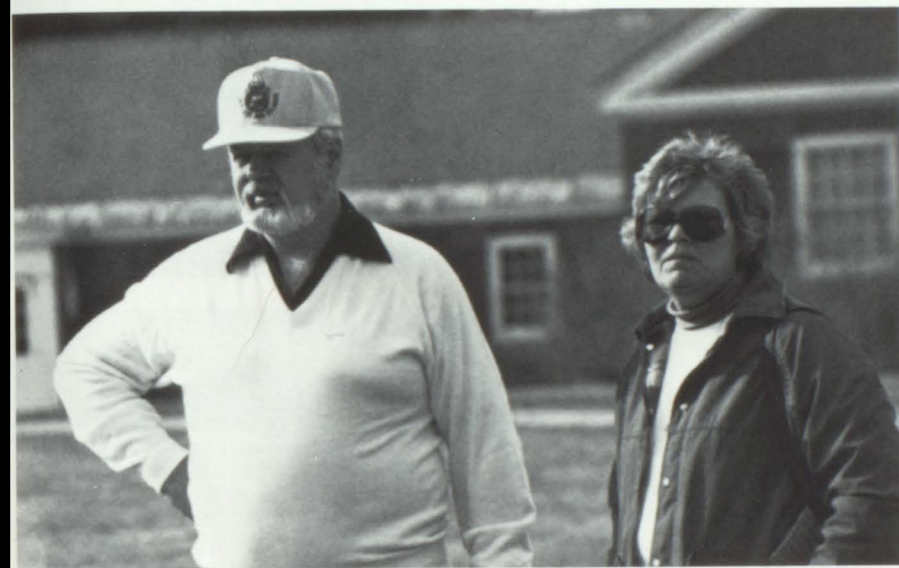

This year's Mountain Day may have lacked sunshine and a good view, but we had a few good laughs and there were only a few minor casualties. There is one thing to be said for this year's Mountain Day, and that is that it will probably be the most memorable Mountain Day for some time to come.

As You Like It

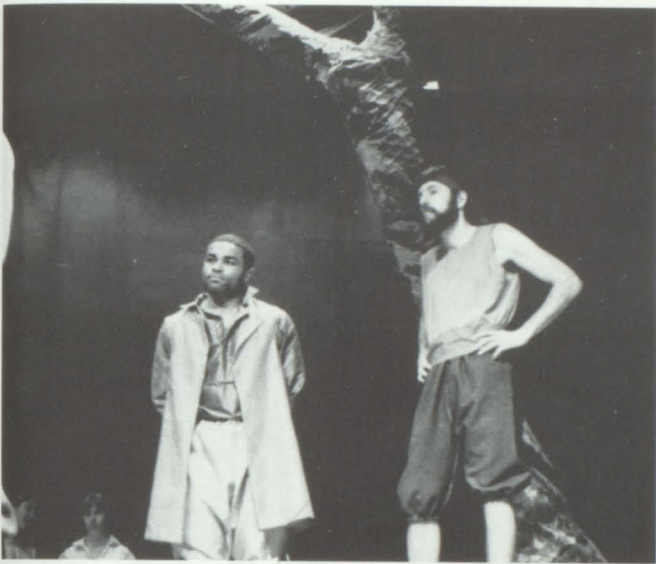

As You Like It is a funny play full of good spirits and healthy nonsense. The forces of good triumph over the forces of evil, and by the end of the play a final dance by four couples who will shortly marry provides a fitting conclusion: All's Well That Ends Well would have been a good title, but Shakespeare saved it for another play. There is conflict in As You Like It, but the audience never really fears for the ultimate well being of those on stage. There is no mystery or subtlety to the villainy in this play: in the early action some people in power behave badly, but they repent in the end when the good are restored to their proper positions. The focus of the drama is on love, courtship, and clever conversation laced with wit and merriment. The people in this play like to talk and enjoy using language to entertain and show off intelligence.

THE BIG CHANGE

Before: Alex is swinging his keys. Paige is weaving a thin braid into her hair. I think Dave is asleep. Mike is poking at the fire in the fire-place and Jay rocks back and forth in his chair. So this is what NTL is all about. I glance at the clock and then remember that it is permanently set at ten of seven. My glance shifts to our "facilitator", Amanda Foucher, an exotic looking woman whom I had previously encountered sliding around on the ice in the cover of a garbage can. She has a knowing look about her, but sits silently. I can't stand it anymore, I have to say something. Someone gives me an immediate response, but then the silence falls on us again. I ask another question, then another. Mr. Newell looks at me, much like the look he gave me when I was a scared freshman in his biology class. It's a look that says, "Who is this kid?" among other things.

After: Alex won't stop talking. Can't I say something? We are all interested and excited by the topic, and we are all focusing on each other. We are really listening. We are really feeling for the speaker who is now close to tears. I look over our group and we are comforting and encouraging each other. No one thinks about the days when we sat in silence, wondering why we were there.

I wish I could tell you what brought about this change. I don't know what it was. It was far from "magic", it was much more complicated and frustrating than magic ever could or should be. What happened over the week the senior class spent doing NTL was different for each person, but special all the same.

VISIONS OF OUTWARD BOUND

Visions

of tall mountains, ice, group from hell.
Failure, perhaps rejection.

Is there anything to look forward to?
Veterans say, "It's not so bad. I think
I even had some fun."

Question: Who's in my group?
I hate him.

There's one in every group.

First Impressions:

sunny skies, easy skiing,
Laughter.

Attempt at our first Peak.

Complications-we're only as strong as our weakest member.

Long faces, sometimes

Tears. Then

Regrouping.

First Peak conquered.

Team

together

we did it. Sure there were Disagreements, and the Food was bad (Tuna Cream of what?)

But at times I felt I could spend the rest of my life with these people in the woods.

Crazy?

HOMES BUILT ON LOVE

Our four point was Habitat for Humanity. Half of our class went to Bridgeport, Connecticut and the other half went to Paterson, New Jersey.

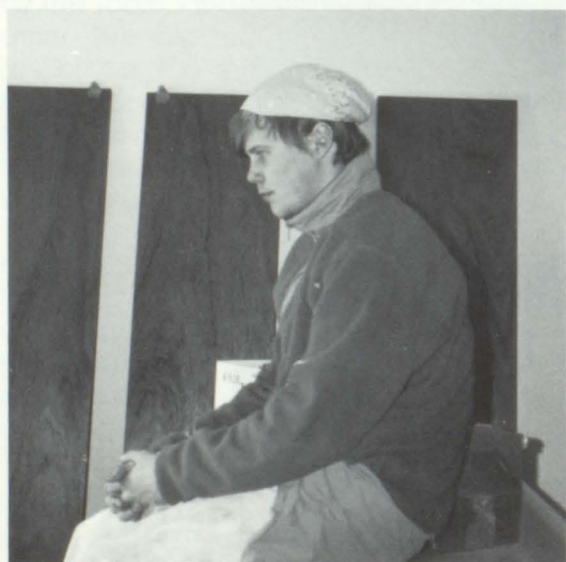

In Paterson we worked on six town houses. We painted, painted, and painted some more. We sanded, stained, put doors on, and did other finishing work. There were also the hacky-sack and donut breaks, the little dealings and the trips to the store. Sunday we didn't work so we visited New York City!

In Bridgeport, the house we worked on definitely needed work. We wired, cemented, shingled, and put floors in. And hey, don't forget the awesome porch!

The best part was getting to meet the families who might live there. And we would like to thank our faculty advisors Mr. Ford, Mr. Walker, and Mrs. Owen.

Seeing how much we accomplished definitely made the trip worthwhile. We became a lot closer as a class and had a great time doing it.

"Our love should not be just words and talk. It must be true love which shows itself in action." — (Habitat for Humanity motto)

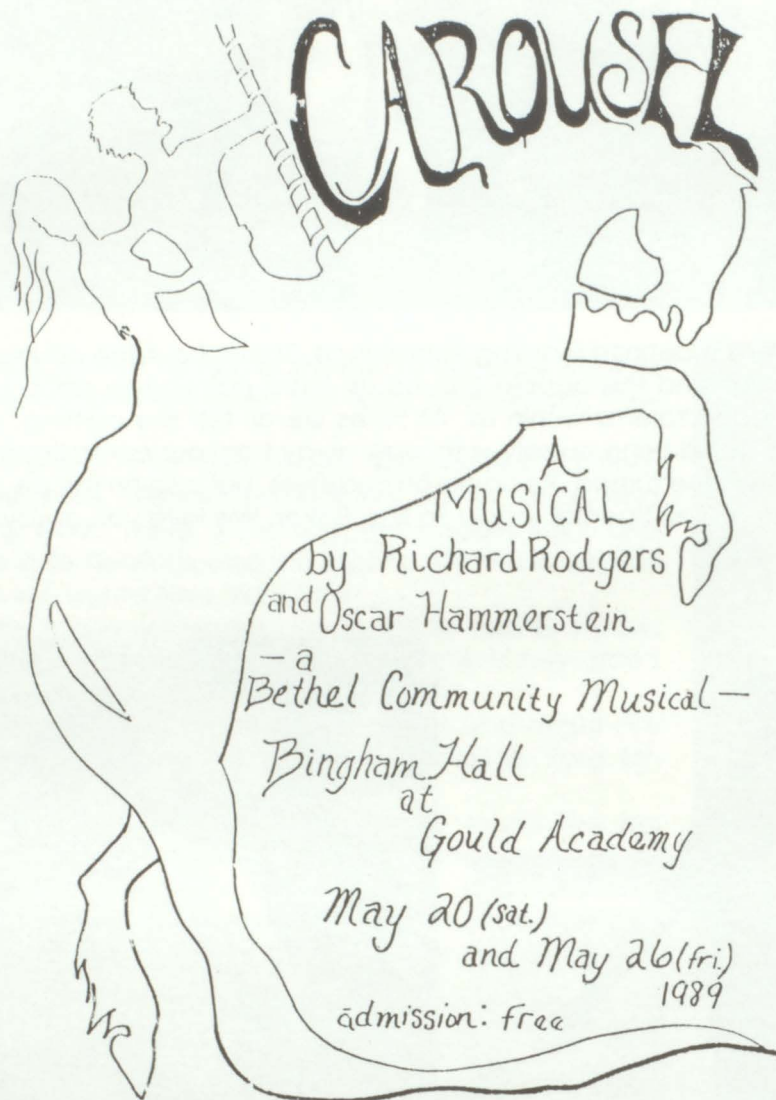

DANCE!

The freshman four point was a definite learning experience. Throughout the course of the week we learned more about ourselves and the people around us. From painting to dancing, from mime to singing, we found many hidden talents within us. At times we all felt like quitting, and we had the opportunity, but none of us could bring ourselves to walk away from our commitment. In the end we found that we would not only have turned our backs on ourselves, but also on the people that we later found out we care so much about. Special thanks to Mrs. Baker. We love you always!
